

July 2019

To whom it may concern,

Throughout the planning process and the execution of the event, Marcus and his team at AMS were a joy to work with.

Our event had a lot of moving parts as well as many unexpected hurdles. Marcus handled everything with complete professionalism and great attention to detail, both preparing a plan as well as a backup plan. His knowledge of the area and local relationships helped us to create and deliver an excellent transportation plan.

I appreciated their ability to refine and improve throughout the event and was impressed with their dedication to go above and beyond across the board; from the management team to the temporary staff.

I would not hesitate in choosing AMS again, and STRONGLY recommend them to any event planning company. You won't be disappointed!

Sincerely,
